The Penn Bank Beyond Hope.

PITTSBURG, May 28.—In the extreme muddled condition of the Penn bank affairs, in the absence of President Riddle, the only person who holds a key to the secrets of the bank, and with the reticence of the directors and others concerned, no definite conclusion can be reached, but it is now taken for granted that the depositors are fortunate if they get 5 per cent. of the amounts entrusted. This much is definitely known: the concern is completely gutted, the assets are diminishing rapidly and the liabilities swelling even more rapidly. Those who had to call on their resources drew with an unsparring hand and there is little left to tell the tale. The books shed very little light. The shortage grows hourly as the intricacies of the book accounts are solved and from but three hundred and fifty thousand overdrawn, it has grown to over a million and the end is not yet. So clean a sweep has rarely been made in Pittsburgh. The liabilities are believed to reach over two millions. It is said the bank's methods date back three years to the time of the Cherry Grove oil excitement, and since then the bank has been losing steadily. Prominent business men, who are acquainted with the affairs of the bank, say if it had closed its doors March 1, they doubt if depositors would have realized 10 per cent.

Last night, after business hours, W. N. Riddle, by his attorney, filed a confession of judgment in favor of the directors of the bank for $99,760. Judgment was entered and an execution of attachment was issued and put in the hands of the sheriff, with instructions to levy.

HAWLEY'S CONDITION.

BOSTON, May 28.—A statement of the assignee of Hawley & Co. shows an indebtedness of $442,000, with assets of $32,000.

A BANK PRESIDENT CAUGHT.

ST. LOUIS, May 28.—Andrew Benson, the missing president of the Hot Springs Arkansas bank, which failed yesterday, was arrested here on an Iron Mountain train this morning. Benson was accompanied by a lady named Miss Steel, of Peoria, Ill., with whom he was reported to have fled from Hot Springs. Benson and Miss Steel were first taken to the Lagrange hotel and afterward to jail. He professes extreme willingness to go back, but says it is an outrage to take the woman too. It is supposed she knows where the money is which Benson took from the bank.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—In the senate the bill was reported favorable to reimburse several states for the interest paid on war loans. The Mexican pension bill was then taken up, the pending question being upon Logan's motion to strike out that part of the amendment proposed by the senate pension committee that limits pension to ex-soldiers and ex-sailors who are dependent in whole or in part on their own labor or assistance from others. The house committee on agricultural reported a bill to establish agriculture experiment stations in connection with various agricultural colleges.

Senator Collum reported a bill conferring pensions upon all persons who served three months during the war and have honorable discharges, and who are or shall become disabled from any cause, not the result of their own cross carelessness, disreputable conduct or vicious habits, and shall also be dependent, wholly or in part, on their own labor or on pecuniary assistance from others for means of comfortable support.

Cobb, of Indiana, reported a bill to forest unearned land granted the Atlantic and Pacific railroad company. Colandered. The morning hour was dispensed with. The house went into a committee of the whole with Cox in the chair, on the legislative bill. It reduces the number of internal revenue collection districts from eighty-four to sixty-three and increases the force in the pension office.

Piloted Over.

CATRO, Ill., May 28.—Henry Hart, a prominent pilot on the Mississippi river, died at the hospital here last night.

Getting Even With a Newspaper.

WABASH, Ind., May 28.—Great excitement is caused at Xenia, near this place, by the discovery of a half pound of dynamite, with a three-foot fuse attached, under the Journal office. The proprietors of the paper suspect the perpetrator to be some person whose enmity has been incurred through some publication.

cation. The supposed intention was to explode the dynamite at night when no one was in the office and so destroy the building without taking life.

Mr. Kugler Acquitted.

CHICAGO, May 28.—Neil McKague, charged with the murder of the aged Wilson couple at Winnetka two months ago, was acquitted this morning on an indictment charging him with the murder of the husband. The one charging him with the murder of the wife is still pending. The evidence is the same in both cases. The trial occupied three weeks.

Simply Settling a Feud.

CINCINNATI, May 28.—A special from Richmond, Ky., says: John G. Garrett was shot and instantly killed by John Turner in the southern portion of this county yesterday. The men met on the road and Garrett saluted Turner pleasantly. The latter, who carried a gun on his shoulder, after cursing Garrett shot the whole top of his head off. An old feud was the cause of the difficulty.

Killed for His Gold.

ST. LOUIS, May 28.—A farmer named Gooding, living six miles from Osborn, this state, was found yesterday in a cyclone cave, on his farm, with his head beaten to a jelly and a bloody slab with which the murder had been committed, lying near him. Gooding was a bachelor and was supposed to have considerable money and jewelry, and was doubtless killed for plunder. No clue to the murderer.

Tilters of the Earth.

PITTSBURG, May 27.—The funeral directors association of Pennsylvania met in annual session here this morning with 250 delegates in attendance, a number being present from other states. Nothing of importance has yet transpired.

Fifteen hundred coal miners at the depot have refused to accept the reduction of one-fourth cent and will strike unless the district price is paid. A delegation meeting will be held at the Monongahela House, to consider the advisability of ordering a general strike of four pools.

Dunn, William Dowd, Charles N. Tiffany, John Austin Stevens, Thomas Hathorne, Solon Humphreys, Erasmus Wiman, Edward Pierrepont, Thomas Butler, E. A. Quintard and Lloyd Appinwall. She is laden with household goods, kitchen utensils, farming implements, lumber, nails, stoves, clothing, medicine, etc., which she will distribute to the upper end of the Ohio, where the steamer will be discharged. Miss Barton and assistants will then take the train for Washington. This closes the active labor of the Red Cross during the flood of the Ohio and Mississippi.

The First Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 28.—The national greenback convention assembled at English's Opera house at 11 o'clock and was called to order by Jesse Harper, of Illinois, chairman of the national committee. Hon. John Tyler, of Florida, was elected temporary chairman. George O. Hockstiff, of Missouri, and Cornelius Dowdy, of New York, were made secretaries. All the states are represented except Delaware and Mississippi. South Carolina is represented by Morse Churcutt, a proxy. The ordinary business was transacted at the morning session and a committee on credentials was appointed consisting of one member from each state. The contest from Maine, one set of delegates being headed by Solan Chase, anti-Bulter, is the only one of importance. George O. Jones, of New York, attempted several times to get in a resolution favorable to the Chase delegation, but was not recognized by the chairman. The convention adjourned until 2 o'clock to give the credential committee time to report.

The Methodist Conference.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 28.—In the Methodist Protestant general convention a memorial was presented from the Louisiana conference, asking for recognition in that state. Referred. The committee on education read their report containing a favorable review of the operations of Westminister and Adrian colleges and their schools of theological departments. Resolutions were adopted requiring the several conferences to pay a per capita tax of ten cents upon members of churches for the support of educational institutions.

Rev. Dr. Drinkhouse offered a resolution providing for the appointment of three fraternal messengers to the general convention of the Reformed Protestant Episcopal church, which was adopted. Also a resolution to open correspondence with the Congregational Methodists with a view to forming a union of those churches with the Methodist Protestant churches. Adopted. The consideration of the amendments to the constitution occupied the remainder of the session.

AT PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—Bishop Fowler presided at the general conference of the M. E. church. The report of the committee on temporal economy then came up with the recommendation that not less than two nor more than thirteen stewards should be appointed in each circuit. Adopted and change ordered in the discipline to conform with this action. The present number is nine. The conference adopted a report recommending that no divorce be granted except for adultery and that a committee be appointed to confer with the governor of each state for the passage of such laws.

Jolly Life in the West.

CHICAGO, May 28.—A special from Helena, Montana, says: "Two masked men mounted and armed with Winchester rifles robbed the Benton coach yesterday, twenty-five miles from Helena. They rifled the mail bags and robbed the passengers. The treasure box was also sacked, but contained nothing of value. The spot where the robbery took place was in a canyon at the gate of the mountains. The robbers rode suddenly out of the timber at the side of the road, and with leveled guns compelled the driver to stop. The passengers, C. W. Cooper, C. E. Dudley and F. T. Bradley, were ordered out of the coach and placed in line. Cooper lost $75 and a silver watch; Dudley, $140; Bradley, a small amount of money and jewelry. It is not known what valuables were in the mail. The sheriff and two others are now in pursuit.

Operetta at Library Hall.

Quite a pleasant entertainment was given at Library hall last evening. The program began with a fairies grand march, in which fifty pretty little misses participated. The operetta followed and was quite cleverly conceived. The scenes are in a boarding school, and many burlesques were nicely acted by the Misses Katie O'Rourke, Flora Long, Lizzie DeWald, M. Laughlin, Bessie Horn, J. Nieman, L. Dickson, C. Fleming, S. Gaffney, E. Forbing, E. Fleming. The operetta was interspersed with instrumental music, quite brilliantly executed on the piano and organ by the Misses L. DeWald, M. McDonald, M. Laughlin, Flora Long, Annie Summers, Clara Trentman, Clara Lardier, M. Dickson, Mollie Murphy, M. Worl and Mamie Trentman. Miss Katie McDougal, an accomplished pianiste, was accompanied to songs in the operetta and a participant in the instrumental selections. Miss Carrie DeWald recited "Barbara Freitchie," and Miss Lizzie Kane "The Athlete Graduate" in a very pleasing manner. The young ladies betray rare elocutionary powers and careful training.

To-night the historical drama will be given by the graduates of the school.

For some time past the Cincinnati German teachers have been advertising an excursion to Germany at $85 for the round trip. A party of Fort Wayne people will leave on the excursion next Monday. The party consists of Christian Bippi, of 91 Wilt street; William Koenig, of East Washington street; Conrad Kleinknecht, wife and several others. They will remain abroad for three months or more.

Sheriff Schiefer is sending the following circulars out: "Stolen, on Saturday, May 24, 1884, in Allen county, Indiana, one dark bay horse colt, four years old, very bushy tail, no shoes on, weighs about 1200 pounds, with a large white spot on forehead, also a snip on nose. Twenty-five dollars will be paid for the horse, $5 for the thief. Also, a liberal reward will be paid for any information that will lead to his arrest."

The retention of any waste matter in the system produces injury. The collection of phlegm or diseased mucus in time of a cold or throat affection should be promptly removed. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup does it more quickly and effectually than any other cough remedy made.

KISER'S COMPLAINT.

After Forty-Two Years of Wedded Life the Venerable Pioneer Seeks a Divorce from His Wife—Driven from Home and His Life Threatened.

In the superior court this morning Hon. Peter Kiser filed a complaint for divorce from his wife, Rebecca Kiser, through his attorneys, Franklin P. Randall and Sinclair & Hanna. Mr. Kiser is the pioneer proprietor of the general store on Calhoun street, and his eccentricities have made him known all over northern Indiana. Before 1825 Mr. Kiser came to this county and was employed to furnish meat rations to the Indians by General Tipton. He opened the first butcher shop in town and built the first market house. There is not an important event in the history of the city and county that is not recorded in his famous scrap book. Although quite old, he still cuts, with an ancient ax, the wood for a stove in his place of business and lives as he did in the primitive days of Fort Wayne. He twice represented this county in the state legislature and is quite a genius. These facts make his present petition for divorce novel and interesting. The paper is as follows:

"Peter Kiser complains of Rebecca Kiser and says that he is now, and has been for fifty years last past, a bona fide resident of Allen county, Indiana; that he was married to the defendant on the 23 day of January, 1842, at Fort Wayne, Indiana; that the marriage ceremony was performed by Judge McMakin; that he has lived and cohabited with the defendant as his husband until about the 1st of March, 1882; that at all times since their said marriage he has treated the defendant kindly and affectionately, and supported her and supplied all her wants; that this plaintiff is of the age of seventy-eight years; that plaintiff and the defendant have sons now living, all of whom are of the age of twenty-one years, and able to work and do for themselves; that all of said sons have no love or affection for plaintiff; and they have succeeded in alienating the defendant from this plaintiff, so that she has now no respect or affection for him; that about the year 1864 the defendant began to treat this plaintiff unkindly and abusively and her ill-treatment increased and continued from that time until said 1st day of March, 1882, when the defendant, prompted by her unfriendly feeling for him and instigated by her sons, and while this plaintiff was sick and suffering from the infirmities of old age, drove and compelled him to leave his home that he had purchased with his own means, and where he had lived forty years; and that ever since said time plaintiff has been without the comforts of a home and the tender care of a wife although by reason of his age and infirmities he was greatly in need thereof; that frequently before the plaintiff was compelled to leave his home as aforesaid the defendant and his son, Ellis, have threatened to take his life; that ever since said 1st day of March, 1882, the defendant has shown no disposition to relent and permit him to return home and live with her; that he believes that the defendant will never again have any love and affection for him and that there is no hope of any reconciliation between them.

"Wherefore, he asks the court to divorce him from the defendant and for such other and proper relief as to the court shall seem proper and meet."

EXPERTS TALK.

The Imported Gentlemen Speak Plainly About Immorality—An Eccentric Expert—Behavior of the Prisoner and Interest of the Ladies in the Case.

Every moment of the day and night sessions of the Butler case at Columbia City finds the court room packed with men and women, whose interest in the trial increases, rather than diminishes. The ladies still attend in large numbers, and they seem determined to see the curtain go down on the final act. Just what their feeling is toward the defendant now, after having seen him from day to day and observed his conduct and bearing during the progress of the trial, and having learned as well many new facts concerning his career, is not known; but to make a wild guess, or to judge by their facial expression, the conclusion would be that their forgiving nature is rapidly overcoming all previous hatred they may have entertained toward the prisoner, and were his case placed, at their disposal, it can be said with some degree of certainty that he would never hang.

Butler's indifference to the proceedings, his perfect composure and unchangeable expression of countenance, carry the inference to the observer that he is absolutely satisfied in his own mind that "a couple of good lawyers and a lot of his father's money" will land him safely beyond the tortures of the law and the unpleasant surroundings of the penitentiary. However, there is one indication that he is slightly interested in the result and that is a noticeable falling away of flesh. He is undoubtedly getting poor, as his cheek bones are becoming prominent and his cheeks are somewhat hollowed. But whether this is the result of mental anxiety or lack of exercise we cannot say. It may be on account of the close confinement to which he is subjected, or from the annoyance occasioned by being stared at constantly by the public.

The defence is still working hard to build up an indestructible fortress of insanity, and, with this end in view, expert medical men have been brought to the witness stand and unfolded, as it were, before the jury. The expert who occupied the stand last evening was an eccentric character and withal a very excellent and talented witness. But, nevertheless, he admitted that there was no drawing the line between the sane and the insane man. He also gave assent to the assertion, made by the state, that to "take brains from an idiot made him smarter," and to "take brains from a smart man made him crazy." He also assured the jury that an insane man can reason, transact business, lay plans and execute them, that he could distinguish between right and wrong, and, in fact, exercise all of the functions of the mind and be crazy all the while.

Letter From Assemblyman HONG.
STATE OF NEW YORK, ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, ALBANY, April, 13.

During my temporary residence here the past winter, I contracted a severe cold, which for a time confined me to my room and rendered me unfit to attend to my duties. I not only suffered all the inconveniences which usually attend a heavy cold, but was afflicted with a tightness in the chest, accompanied with a severe pain, which made breathing difficult and rest impossible. I tried the usual remedies—enough drops cough syrups, etc., but received no substantial relief until I applied Alcock's Porous Plasters, on my back and chest.

These I put on when retiring, and was delighted to find myself much better the next morning. In two days I was well. This, and the experience I have had with Alcock's Plasters in my family, has convinced me that for coughs, colds, sprains, bruises, rheumatism and local pains, Alcock's Porous Plasters are the quickest and most effective remedy extant.

Nature's great remedy, Kidney Wort, has cured many obstinate cases of piles. This most distressing malady generally arises from constipation and a bad condition of the bowels. Kidney Wort acts at the same time as a cathartic and a healing tonic, removes the cause, cures the disease and promotes a healthy state of the affected organs. James F. Moyer, carriage maker of Myerstown, Pa., testifies to the great healing powers of Kidney Wort, having been cured by it of a very bad case of piles which for years had refused to yield to any other remedy.
